VOL. 1.

SPOUTSPRING, KY., AUGUST 8, 1896.

NO. 29.

W. F. Hart, who is under arrest at Mayfield, has confessed to having eight wives. Two of the eight he married in Kentucky.

The Mt. Sterling Advocate Notes the purchase and shipment by Jo C. Turley of 155 export cattle which averaged 1450 pounds of various parties at from 3½ to 4 cents.

This is the way a Marion county man wants to bet on the November election: He wants to bet $10,000 that McKinley will carry Kentucky by 10,000 he to pay the taker of the bet $2 for every vote under 10,000 majority for McKinley, and the taker to pay him $5 for every vote over 10,000 majority.

A peculiar double marriage is to soon take place at Ashland. Several years ago two men eloped with each others wives, secured divorces and were married. They lived together about one year, and, becoming dissatisfied, separated, and was again divorced. Arrangements have been made for a double wedding of it, each fellow taking his first wife.

Tom Allen, colored, of Millersburg, was taken to Par is last week, and tried for selling a bucket of blackberries. It was ordered by the Court that Allen should be whipped. Deputy jailer Fox applied the lash vigorously, after which the negro was released.

Abram Moris, aged sixty years, and Miss Sarah Williams, aged forty-seven, were married at Damascus, Ky. last week. They have met each other at least once a week for forty years.

Beginning August 20, there will be a protracted picnic of three days at Patsy.
